Forecast For London & Southeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Monday 27 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A change to more unsettled weather is expected this week.

Today:
Some very wet and windy conditions, with outbreaks of locally heavy rain, will soon clear eastern areas during Monday morning, with sunny spells and blustery showers following. Feeling much fresher than of late. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
A breezy night with clear spells and further showers. These mainly affecting western areas and Channel coasts. Clouding over later with showery rain arriving to some parts. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Tuesday:
A cloudy morning with showers or longer spells of rain reaching all areas through Tuesday. A rather windy day and continuing to feel much cooler compared to recent days. Maximum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Windy on Wednesday with some sunshine. Further rain and showers spreading eastwards Thursday and Friday with some brightness at times. Temperatures near or slightly below average.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.